

MEMBERSHIP / TERMS & CONDITIONS / ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

This is the Agreement between you, the member, and First Flight Federal Credit Union ("Credit Union"), regarding your accounts with the Credit Union. By establishing an account with the Credit Union, you agree that this Agreement is a binding contract between you and the Credit Union.

You should retain a copy of the agreement and feel free to call the Credit Union if you have any questions. In addition to your agreement with the terms and conditions set forth in this document, by establishing an account with the Credit Union you acknowledge receipt of and agree to the various terms separately provided to you with regard to Truth in Savings, Availability of Funds, and Electronic Fund Transfers (EFT) and Wire Transfer Disclosures. The various terms and conditions set forth in those documents are incorporated into this Agreement by reference. You also agree to abide by the Bylaws of the Credit Union.

This Agreement and those documents discussed above include certain disclosures required under the Truth-In-Savings Act and National Credit Union Administration and Federal Reserve Board regulations and commentary, the Electronic Fund Transfer Act (Regulation E), the North Carolina Electronic Funds Transfers Act, the Funds Availability Act (Regulation CC), Regulation D, and Uniform Commercial Code Article 4A.

Throughout this Agreement, the words "you" and "your" mean the member and any joint members or co-depositors or co-borrowers. The words "we", "our", "us", and "Credit Union" mean First Flight Federal Credit Union.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership Eligibility. The Credit Union serves in its field of membership those applicants within the First Flight Federal Credit Union's common bond as defined in the Credit Union's Charter. First Flight serves a broad membership including employees of many of North Carolina's largest firms in the high tech, manufacturing, pharmaceutical, legal, and service industries. Please review our Membership eligibility on the First Flight Federal Credit Union website at www.efirstflight.com or speak with one of our service representatives to determine if you are eligible to join. Eligibility also includes spouses of persons who died while within the field of membership; Credit Union employees; persons retired as pensioners or annuitants from eligible organizations and organizations of such persons. If you retire, change jobs (outside the field of membership) or move to a new location, you may remain a member of the Credit Union. Only members in good standing may receive the benefits and services of the Credit Union.

Family Membership. Our membership also includes, if sponsored by a Member in Good Standing, immediate family members and possible other members of your same household. The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) defines "immediate family" as spouses, children, siblings, parents, grandparents, grandchildren, stepparents, stepchildren, stepsiblings, and adopted children. The NCUA defines "household members" as those individuals living in the same residence and who maintain a single economic unit. This includes anyone who is a permanent member of and participates in the maintenance of the household. Domestic partners and anyone who lives in the household and can demonstrate a degree of permanency will be considered to be household members. If you retire, change jobs (outside the field of membership) or move to a new location, you may remain a member of the Credit Union. Only members in good standing may receive the benefits and services of the Credit Union.

Becoming a Member. To become a member of the Credit Union, you must complete a Member Application and Signature Card and open a Regular Share Account. The basic share deposit that you must always keep in your Regular Share Account is $25.00.

Credit Information. You authorize the Credit Union to investigate your credit standing when opening or reviewing any Loan Account. We may report information about your loan account(s) to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your loan account(s) may be reflected in your credit report. You also authorize the Credit Union to disclose information regarding your Account to credit bureaus and creditors who inquire about your credit standing.

Deposits Generally. After you have established your Regular Share Account, you may make additional deposits into that account, or establish other types of accounts as described herein, at any time and in any amount. Your accounts are not transferable except on the Credit Union's books and records. We may establish minimum amounts for deposits in your Regular Shares Account or any other accounts you have with the credit union.

You can make deposits in person or by mail. At the present time, you can arrange to have one or more of the following deposits made directly to your accounts: (1) payroll deduction deposits, (2) net pay deposits, (3) Social Security deposits, (4) pension plan deposits, (5) stock dividends or (6) other miscellaneous deposits. If you have an automatic teller machine (ATM) card or a debit card, you can also make a deposit through one of the automated teller machines equipped to accept deposits.

If you have arranged to have direct electronic fund transfer deposits made to your account, you can call us at 800-807-0766 to find out whether or not the deposit has been made. In addition, you will receive an account statement showing all such direct deposits at least monthly. Your account statements will be admissible as evidence of the electronic fund transfer deposit or other transaction they represent in any action in a court of law.

All deposits are subject to proof and verification. If you deposit a check, draft or other non-cash item, we have the right to clear it before we make the money available to you subject to applicable federal regulations. If there are special fees for collecting your deposit, you promise to pay them (see the Truth in Savings Fee Schedule for a list of fees). We may deduct such fees directly from your account. If we feel there is a reason to do so, we may refuse, limit or return any deposit. We have the right to refuse to accept any deposit and we specifically reserve the right to refuse to accept checks for deposit that have more than one endorsement. We reserve the right not to pay interest on amounts subject to garnishment, levy or other legal process; and we reserve the right not to pay interest on any deposit that is returned to us unpaid by the financial institution on which it is drawn (even if that means a reversal of credited interest).

All negotiable instruments presented for deposit must be in a format that can be processed and/or photographed. The Credit Union may refuse to accept any check or draft that does not meet this requirement. All endorsements placed on the reverse side of any check or draft which you deposit to your account must be placed so that they are on the left side of the item when looking at it from the front and must be placed so they do not go beyond an area located 1 and ½ inches from the left edge of the item when looking at it from the front. The Credit Union may refuse to accept any item that does not meet this requirement, and, if the credit union does accept it, you agree that you are completely responsible for any loss we incur which is premised on an endorsement not meeting this requirement, including any court costs and reasonable attorney fees.

Withdrawing Money from Your Account. As long as you have available funds in an account, and subject to any applicable state or federal laws and regulations and any specific terms of this Agreement, money can be withdrawn from your accounts by any method approved by the Credit Union.

Fees. Any Account may be subject to service charges in accordance with the fee schedule adopted by the Credit Union from time to time. You should refer to the Truth in Savings Fee Schedule for a list of fees. These fees may be changed at our discretion. We will provide you notice of such changes in accordance with law.

Transaction Limitations. Except with respect to your Share Draft Account, during any statement period, you may not make more than six transfers or withdrawals, or a combination of such transfers and withdrawals, from any account to another account or to a third party by means of preauthorized or automatic transfer or telephonic agreement, order or instruction. If you exceed the transfer limitations set forth above in any month with respect to one of your accounts, your payment may be returned, your account may be charged additional fees for any additional transactions, or that account will be subject to closure by the Credit Union. Please refer to the Truth-in-Savings Disclosure for more information regarding transaction limitations. The Credit Union reserves the right to require not less than 7 days advance notice nor more than 60 days advance notice from you of any withdrawals.

Unlawful Internet Gambling Notice. Restricted transactions as defined in Federal Reserve Regulation GG are prohibited from being processed through this account or relationship. Restricted transactions generally include, but are not limited to, those in which credit, electronic fund transfers, checks, or drafts are knowingly accepted by gambling businesses in connection with the participation by others in unlawful Internet gambling.

Power of Attorney. If you appoint an agent as your Attorney-in-Fact with a Power of Attorney document and we accept the documentation presented for such an appointment, we may accept such an authorization for transactions without further communication to you. Unless your Power of Attorney document specifically prevents you from entering into transactions, we may accept either your personal transactions and/or those authorized by your appointed "Agent".

Special Terms Regarding Share Draft Accounts

Deposits Generally. Once you have established your Share Draft Account (at some Credit Unions, these are called checking accounts), you may make additional deposits into those accounts at any time and in any amount subject to the terms of this Agreement. The above terms regarding "deposits generally" also apply to Share Draft Accounts, except as they may be modified by this section. All drafts drawn on your Share Draft Account may be returned by us unpaid for any reason that drafts are normally returned, such as, for example, insufficient funds, uncollected funds, or litigation.

See Truth-in-Savings Disclosure for applicable minimum balance requirements.

Withdrawing Money from Your Share Draft Account. As long as you have money in your Share Draft Account, and subject to any applicable state or federal laws and regulations, available funds can be withdrawn from your account by written draft or any other method approved by the Credit Union.

Share drafts must generally be ordered through the Credit Union. If share drafts are not ordered through the Credit Union, the Credit Union will assess a fee whenever problems in clearing such drafts in an automated fashion arise. When you order share drafts through the Credit Union, the Credit Union will charge your account for the costs of said share drafts, which costs vary depending on the style of drafts ordered. You may select drafts from the current styles available.

Transaction Limitations. Except as otherwise stated in this Agreement, or in any applicable federal or state law or regulation, there are no transaction limitations on share draft accounts. However, Fresh Start Checking deposits are limited to Direct Deposit, automated deposits from another financial institution (ACH), cash, and internal account transfers.

Payment of Share Drafts. The Credit Union is under no obligation to pay a share draft which is more than 6 months old. Except for negligence, the Credit Union is not liable for any action it takes regarding the payment or non-payment of a draft.

Dividends. See "Rate Disclosure" for applicable dividend rates.

Funds Availability. Funds from deposits you make into your Share Draft Account may not always be immediately available. Refer to our Funds Availability disclosure for more details.

The use of the Share Draft Account is subject to other terms, conditions and requirements as the Credit Union may establish from time to time.

Fees. As with all other accounts, your Share Draft account may be subject to service charges in accordance with the fee schedule adopted by the Credit Union from time to time. You should refer to the Fee Schedule for a list of fees. These fees may be changed at our discretion.

Overdraft(s). The Credit Union is under no obligation to pay a share draft you have written if it would result in the Share Draft Account being overdrawn (a draft written against your Share Draft Account when insufficient available funds are on deposit in the account is known as an NSF Share Draft), however, you agree to reimburse the Credit Union for funds advanced if the Credit Union does pay a share draft or other authorized transaction from your account(s), including any fee applicable for such an overdrawn account. You agree for yourself and the person or entity you represent if you sign as a representative of another, to the terms of this account and the schedule of charges. You authorize us to deduct these charges directly from your share draft account balance as accrued. You will pay any additional reasonable charges for services you request which are not covered by this agreement.

If this is a joint account (that is, if two or more people are parties to this account), all of the joint owners are jointly and severally liable to repay the Credit Union the amount of any overdraft and service charges, regardless which of the parties writes the draft that creates an overdraft and regardless of which party benefits from the overdraft. Each of you also agrees to be jointly and severally (individually) liable for any account shortage resulting from charges or overdrafts, whether caused by you or another with access to this account. This liability is due immediately, and can be deducted directly from the account balance whenever sufficient funds are available. You have no right to defer payment of this liability, and you are liable regardless of whether you signed the item or benefited from the charge or overdraft. This includes liability for our costs to collect the deficit including, to the extent permitted by law, our reasonable attorneys' fees.

Overdraft Protection. To the extent authorized by law, you hereby authorize us to transfer funds from other accounts you maintain at this credit union, in increments as the credit union may determine, to any account upon which you issue a share draft when there are not sufficient funds in the account upon which that draft is issued. If you have a line of credit with this credit union, transfers will be made either from your credit line up to the available credit limit or from your Regular Share Account, if there are sufficient funds in the Regular Share Account. You may elect your preference as to which accounts funds may be transferred from for this purpose. Any overdraft transfers resulting from this procedure may result in a fee being assessed to your regular share account. You agree to hold the credit union harmless for any and all liability that may otherwise exist if a transfer does not occur.

Overdraft Privilege Pay Information & Overdrafts. Overdraft Privilege Pay is a service of First Flight Federal Credit Union that allows us to pay an item presented against your checking account even if it causes the account to become overdrawn. Overdraft privilege is not a line of credit. However, if members inadvertently overdraw their accounts, First Flight Federal will have the discretion to pay the overdraft, subject to the limit of member's overdraft privilege and the amount of the overdraft fee. First Flight Federal Credit Union is not obligated to pay any item presented for payment if member's account does not contain sufficient available funds. Any discretionary payment by First Flight Federal Credit Union of an overdraft share draft (excluding ATM and VISA Check Card withdrawals/overdrafts and non-third party checks presented at a teller window) does not obligate First Flight Federal Credit Union to pay any other overdraft share draft (or item), or to provide prior notice of its decision to refuse to pay such share draft (or item). Only the Member-Owner of the account is eligible for the Overdraft Privilege Pay Program.

Our Overdraft Privilege Pay program offers overdraft protection to you for qualifying share draft consumer (checking) and electronic accounts. If an item or order is presented for payment from an account that has insufficient funds to pay that item, the Credit Union will first determine if you have made other arrangements for overdraft protection either by advancing the funds from another account at the Credit Union or from an overdraft protection loan advance. If there are no such other arrangements for an overdraft to be paid, then the Credit Union will determine if this particular share draft account is eligible for the overdraft to be paid with our Overdraft Privilege Pay Program.

Amount/Transaction Restrictions for Privilege Pay Program

First Flight Federal Credit Union will have the discretion to pay up to $500.00 - $750.00 on share draft accounts with the exception of Fresh Start Checking based on account criteria, and the credit union will not pay any amount exceeding the $500.00 - $750.00 which would result in your primary share draft account being overdrawn in an amount exceeding that limit. First Flight Federal Credit Union will have the discretion to pay up to $225.00 on Fresh Start Checking based on account criteria, and the credit union will not pay any amount exceeding the $225.00 which would result in your primary share draft account being overdrawn in an amount exceeding that limit.

Eligibility Restrictions for Privilege Pay Program

Pursuant to First Flight Federal Credit Union's commitment to always provide its member with the best level of service, now and in the future, if a member's consumer account (primarily used for personal and household purposes) and has been open for at least forty-five (45) days, and you have been maintained in good standing and not opted out of this Overdraft Privilege process, you must meet the eligibility requirements below. An Account in good standing includes, but is not limited to, the following minimum requirements.

You will not be eligible for Overdraft Privilege Pay if: (1) You have not reached your 18th birthday; (2) You are subject to any legal or administrative order such as, but not limited to, garnishment, levy or dishonored instrument; (3) You are currently a party in a bankruptcy proceeding or have caused a financial loss to First Flight Federal Credit Union from a previous bankruptcy filing; (4) You have an outstanding balance on an existing Overdraft Repayment Plan; (5) There is a hold or freeze on your share draft checking account; (6) You are delinquent on any loan payments at First Flight Federal Credit Union; (7) You are in default on any loan or other obligation to First Flight Federal Credit Union; (8) You are subject to any legal or administrative order or levy; (9) You die or are involved in any insolvency proceedings, receivership or custodial proceeding brought by or against you; (10) You have completed an Overdraft Repayment Plan, but not on schedule or, you completed an Overdraft Protection Plan, but you have not maintained a positive balance in your primary share draft account for a period of three months after completing an Overdraft Repayment Plan; (11) Your account contains a ChexSystems indicator; or (12) We have noted what appears to be improper activity occurring in your account. We are not obligated to give you advance notice of our intent not to pay an NSF item and, except for provision 12 in this paragraph, we will not provide you with advance notice not to pay an item. If we believe that improper activity has occurred in your account, we will provide you with one-days notice of our intent to reject any such Non-Sufficient Fund items presented.

The Privilege Pay Program limits above include any overdraft fees assessed. If your share draft (checking) account otherwise qualifies for the Privilege Pay Program, we may, at our sole discretion, pay overdrafts up to the limits above, including normal Non-Sufficient Funds charge(s) or Privilege Pay charge(s). Your account will be assessed a fee either as a Privilege Pay fee if we pay an item when there are not sufficient funds or your account will be assessed a fee if the item is returned as a Non-Sufficient Fund transaction, however, your account will not be assessed both fees for any single transaction. Our current charge per item is set forth in our fee schedule, which is subject to change at any time.

Privilege Pay is a non-contractual courtesy of paying overdrafts and requires no accountholder action. No additional agreements need to be signed and it costs nothing unless the privilege is used by initiating checks or other payment or withdrawal requests for more than is on deposit in the account. If you maintain the account in good standing and have need for this "courtesy", we may, at our sole discretion, pay the item(s) up to the authorized limit and charge the account our normal Non-Sufficient Fund or Privilege Pay fee for each presentation of an item that overdraws the account.

Although you are not charged for using Privilege Pay unless you have an overdraft, you may opt-out of Privilege Pay at any time. If you do not want us to pay your overdrafts, you must tell us in writing that you "opt-out." If you receive a direct deposit Social Security or other federal benefit check, you must tell us in writing if you opt-out and do not want us to apply those funds to repay an overdraft.

The Credit Union has the option of honoring an NSF Share Draft or dishonoring it to avoid the creation of an overdraft. Honoring of past overdrafts does not obligate the Credit Union to honor them in the future. The Credit Union is not required to send prior notice of drafts returned NSF and you agree to immediately deposit sufficient funds to cover any overdraft and service charges.

If this is a joint account (that is, if two or more people are parties to this account), all of the joint owners are jointly and severally liable to repay the Credit Union the amount of any overdraft and service charges, regardless which of the parties writes the draft that creates an overdraft.

Privilege Pay allows First Flight Federal Credit Union to provide a higher level of service to our accountholders by helping to protect your account and reputation when an inadvertent overdraft occurs. Please call us if you have additional questions concerning the Privilege Pay Policy.

Your Checking Account Balance. Your checking account has two kinds of balances: the "actual" balance and the "available" balance. Both can be checked when you review your account online, by phone, or at a branch. It is important to understand how the two balances work so that you know how much money is in your account at any given time. This section explains actual and available balances and how they work.

Your actual balance is the full amount of all deposits made into your account less payment transactions that have actually "posted" to your account. While the term "actual" may sound as though the number you see is an up-to-date display of what is in your account that you can spend, that is not always the case. It does not reflect checks you have written or payments you have authorized, or holds on deposits that have not yet posted. For example, if you have a $50.00 actual balance, but you just wrote a check for $40.00, then your actual balance is $50.00 but it does not reflect the pending check transaction. So at that point, you actually have $50, but you have already spent $40. Also, the actual balance does not include holds that may be placed on checks you deposit. Thus, if you deposit a $1,000 check, your actual balance will increase by $1,000 but only $225 may be available for you to spend because there may be a hold on $775 for a period of time.

Your available balance is the amount of money in your account that is available to you to use without incurring an overdraft fee. The available balance takes into account things like holds placed on deposits and pending transactions (such as pending debit card purchases) that the Credit Union has authorized but that have not yet posted to your account. For example, assume you have an actual balance of $50 and an available balance of $50. If you were to use your debit card at a restaurant to buy lunch for $20, then that merchant could ask us to pre-authorize the payment. In that case, we will put a "hold" on your account for $20. Your actual balance would still be $50.00 because this transaction has not yet posted, but your available balance would be $30 because you have committed to pay the restaurant $20. When the restaurant submits its bill for payment (which could be a few days later), we will post the transaction to your account and your actual balance will be reduced by $20. Available balance at the time a transaction posts to your account is used to determine when your account is overdrawn.

It is very important to understand that you may still overdraw your account even though the available balance appears to show there are sufficient funds to cover a transaction that you want to make. This is because your available balance may not reflect all the outstanding checks and automatic bill payments that you have authorized, or other outstanding transactions that have not been paid from your account. In addition, your available balance may not reflect all of your debit card transactions. For example, if a merchant obtains our prior authorization but does not submit a one-time debit card transaction for payment within three (3) business days of authorization (or for up to thirty (30) business days for certain types of debit card transactions), we must release the authorization hold on the transaction. The available balance will not reflect this transaction once the hold has been released until the transaction has been received by us and paid from your account.

The best way to know how much money you have and avoid paying overdraft fees is to record and track all of your transactions closely.

IF YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND THIS AGREEMENT OR HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT US.

Suspension of Services. The Credit Union reserves the right to suspend the benefit of any credit union service at any time for reasonable cause. We also have the right to pay any check presented for payment from your account after your account is closed or suspended and we may proceed to collect any such amount paid from you.

Truncated Drafts; Statements. Your canceled share drafts will not be returned to you; they will become Credit Union property and be held by us ("truncated") for you. Your monthly statement will itemize your canceled drafts by number, date of clearing and the amount of the draft. Any objection respecting any item shown on a periodic statement is waived unless made in writing to the Credit Union before the end of thirty (30) days after the statement is mailed. A copy of any share draft will be available to you as required by law. There may be a small fee to obtain a copy of a draft (see the Truth in Savings Rate and Fee Schedule for a list of fees).

Stop Payments

Stop Payment Order Request. You may request a stop payment order on any share draft drawn on your account. To be binding, an order must be dated, signed, and describe the account and draft number and the exact amount. The stop payment will be effective if the Credit Union receives the order in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order and you state the number of the account, number of the draft, and its exact amount. You understand that the exact information is necessary for the Credit Union's computer to identify the share draft. If you give us incorrect or incomplete information, we will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the draft. If the stop payment order is not received in time for us to act upon the order, we will not be liable to you or to any other party for payment of the draft. If we re-credit your account after paying a draft over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to sign a statement describing the dispute with the payee, to transfer to us all of your rights against the payee or other holders of the draft, and to assist us in any legal action.

Duration of Order. A stop payment order is effective for six (6) months and may be renewed in writing from time to time. We do not have to notify you when a stop payment order expires.

Liability. Fees for stop payment orders are set forth on the Truth in Savings Rate and Fee Schedule. You generally may NOT stop payment on any certified check, teller's check or any other check, draft, or payment guaranteed by us. Even if payment of such an item is stopped, you may remain liable to any item holder, including us. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from all costs, including attorney's fees, damages or claims related to our refusing payment of an item, including claims of any multiple party, account owner, payee, or endorser in failing to stop payment of an item as a result of incorrect information you provided the Credit Union.

Payment of Share Drafts after Death. The Credit Union may, after the date of your death, pay share drafts drawn before death unless ordered to stop payment by the Personal Representative or other appropriate person claiming an interest in the account.

Accounts for Corporations, Partnerships, Limited Liability Companies And Other Organizations, Incorporated or Otherwise

This section of the Agreement is designed to allow you to maintain certain business and other entity accounts and to obtain various financial products and services offered by the Credit Union. Throughout this section, the words "you", "your", "organization", and "business" mean the business or other entity for which the primary member opens an account.

A corporation is eligible for an account at the Credit Union if all of the owners of the corporation are individually eligible for membership in the Credit Union.

A partnership may have an account if all the partners of the partnership are individually eligible for membership in the Credit Union.

A limited partnership may have an account if all the general and limited partners of the limited partnership are individually eligible for membership in the Credit Union.

A limited liability company (LLC) or a professional limited liability company (PLLC) may have an account if the group of shareholders (also known as members) of the LLC or PLLC is composed of individuals who are individually eligible for membership in the Credit Union.

A sole proprietorship is eligible for an account if all of the owners of the sole proprietorship are individually eligible for membership in the Credit Union. If this account is established for a sole proprietorship, you agree that this account is not primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

Other organizational structures, incorporated or otherwise, may be eligible to open an account if those organizations are composed of individuals who are also individually eligible for membership in the Credit Union.

No organization, incorporated or otherwise, shall be eligible to open and maintain an account in the Credit Union without substantiating its legal existence, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Credit Union, by providing such documentation as the Credit Union may, from time to time, require, including, but not necessarily limited to, the Certificate of Organization on file with the State of North Carolina or the State of incorporation, the most recent Certificate of Good Standing on file with the State of North Carolina or the State of incorporation, and such Resolutions as may be required by the Credit Union. We reserve the right to require that you provide, and you agree to provide, any such documentation at any time.

The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse services to an organization when such organization has not been created with, has not been properly registered with, and is not governed by the laws of the State of North Carolina.

While generally the individuals who comprise an organization, incorporated or otherwise, shall not be joint owners on an account created for the organization, each of the individuals of the organization signing the Business Membership Card personally guarantees any obligation created by the organization owing to the Credit Union as a result of the establishment of a membership in the Credit Union for the organization.

The following types of financial products and services will be available to organizations:

SAME SERVICES AS AVAILABLE TO INDIVIDUAL ACCOUNTS

To the extent applicable and not superseded herein, the terms and conditions governing those types of account and services govern accounts and services provided to organizations.

You understand and agree that the Credit Union may distribute funds pursuant to the terms of the most recently dated Resolution on file at the Credit Union, and the organization, all of its organizers, shareholders, partners, and/or members forever indemnify and hold the credit union harmless for distributions made in good faith pursuant to that Resolution. You further agree that it is your responsibility to notify the Credit Union when the terms of that Resolution have been revoked, rescinded, revised, or in any way modified.

Other Terms and Conditions

Individual Account(s) are owned by one person.

Joint Account(s) with Survivorship. When two or more parties have signed a signature card as Joint Account owners you are creating, and intend to create, a "joint tenancy with right of survivorship" and either one of you may withdraw from the account without the signature of the other joint owner, unless otherwise restricted upon opening of the account. That is, you as the owners of the account agree with yourselves and the Credit Union that all sums paid in shares or other deposits (as applicable), together with all accumulations, prior to now or hereafter, less setoffs as allowed by law for any sums due the Credit Union by any party, shall be owned by all of you jointly with full right of survivorship, and shall be subject to withdrawal or receipt by any of you in whole or in part. Payment to any of you or the survivor(s) of you, or your personal representatives, administrators or assigns of the last survivor(s) of you, shall be valid and discharge the Credit Union from any liability for such payment and amount. Each signer appoints each other signer to be his or her irrevocable attorney; to make deposits to the account; to endorse, for cash or deposit, any checks or other items whether payable to one of the signers alone or with others; and to receive and receipt for all funds all without obligation to us to inquire into the source or application of funds. To induce us to act thereunder, each person signing the signature card jointly and singly agrees to hold the Credit Union harmless and indemnify us from loss, cost, and damage in all respects in connection with any of the foregoing, including court costs and attorney's fees, except as may be limited by applicable law. Any or all of the joint owners may pledge all or part of the shares or deposits in the account as collateral for security on a loan(s) to this Credit Union. No authority or obligation of the Credit Union may be changed or terminated by one or more of the joint owners without prior written notice to the Credit Union, and no such change or termination shall affect transactions already made. Further, each joint owner is subject to the terms and disclosures of this Agreement, and hereby acknowledges receipt thereof.

Revocable Trust or Pay-on-Death Account: If two or more of you create this type of account, you own the account jointly with survivorship. Beneficiaries cannot withdraw unless: (1) all persons creating the account die, and (2) the beneficiary is then living. If two or more beneficiaries are named and survive the death of all persons creating the account, beneficiaries will own this account in equal shares, without right of survivorship. The person(s) creating either of these account types may: (1) change beneficiaries, (2) change the account types, and (3) withdraw all or part of the account funds at any time.

POD/Trust Account Designation. A Payable on Death (POD) account or trust account designation is an instruction to the Credit Union that a single or multiple party account so designated is payable to the owner(s) during his, her or their lifetimes and, when the last account owner dies, payable to any named and surviving POD or trust beneficiary/payee. The owners of these account types may change the beneficiaries, change the account types, and/or withdraw any or all of the account funds at any time. Accounts payable to more than one surviving beneficiary/payee are owned in equal shares by those beneficiaries, without right of survivorship. The Credit Union is not obligated to notify any beneficiary/payee of the existence of any account or the vesting of the beneficiary/payee's interest in any account, except as otherwise provided by law.

Missing Endorsements. The Credit Union is authorized to supply any of your endorsements on any check or other instrument tendered for any account, and the Credit Union shall have no liability in connection with the collection of such items that are handled by it without negligence, and the credit union shall not be held liable for the acts of any agents, subagents or others. We may accept transfers, checks, drafts and other items for deposit into your account(s) if they are made payable or to the order of one or more account owners, even if they are not endorsed by all payees. Withdrawals may not be made on account of such items until collected, or as otherwise provided by law. Any amount not collected, or later returned, may be charged back to the account, including expense incurred, and any other outside expenses incurred relative to the account may be charged to it.

Custodial Accounts for Minors. Any custodial accounts for minors are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Uniform Transfer to Minors Act. It is your responsibility to know and abide by any legal effects related to this type of account.

Other Accounts for Minors. We may require any account established by a minor to be a multiple party account with an owner who has reached the age of majority under North Carolina law and who shall be jointly and severally liable to us for any returned item, overdraft, or unpaid charges or amounts on such account. We may pay funds directly to a minor without regard to his or her minority. Unless a guardian or parent is an account owner, the guardian or parent shall not have any account access rights. We have no duty to inquire about the use or purpose of any transaction.

Convenience Signer/Agency Designation on an Account. A convenience signer or agency designation on an account is an instruction to us that the owner authorizes another person to make transactions as agent for the account owner regarding the accounts designated. An agent has no ownership interest in the account(s) or Credit Union voting rights. We have no duty to inquire about the use or purpose of any transaction made by the agent.

Share Insurance. Your savings in the Credit Union are insured up to $250,000 by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA), an agency of the Federal Government, in accordance with regulations promulgated by the NCUA. Retirement accounts, including IRA share accounts and Roth and traditional IRA certificates, are covered separately to $250,000 by NCUA. Generally, if a credit union member has more than one individual account in the same insured credit union, those accounts are added together and are insured up to $250,000. Shares maintained in different legal ownership capacities may each be separately insured. There are numerous combinations of accounts that can increase your total coverage. Contact a Member Service Representative to discuss ways to increase your total coverage.

Charges. You agree to pay us charges in connection with your accounts in accordance with the Truth in Savings Fee Schedule for accounts in effect from time to time. We will provide advance notice of any increase in current charges, or any new charges, as required by law. We may deduct any charges owed by you from any of your accounts, whether you are an owner or joint owner. We reserve the right to waive any charges in our sole discretion.

Return of Deposits/Closed Accounts. We may, at any time, in our sole discretion, refuse to accept any deposit, or close any or all of your accounts with us without prior notice to you. Provided, however, we may not terminate your membership in the Credit Union without satisfying the notice provisions of the North Carolina Credit Union Act and related Bylaw Provisions and regulations.

If we close an account, we will notify you and send you a check for any balance in your account after deducting all applicable charges. Any withdrawal that reduces the amount in an account to zero (other than a Share Draft Account) may automatically close that account. We are not liable for any draft, withdrawal or other order after an account is closed.

Any drafts presented after your account has been closed will be returned unpaid. We reserve the right to advise consumer reporting agencies and other third parties of accounts closed for misuse.

Inactive Accounts. The Credit Union will consider your account inactive as defined by North Carolina Statute with no deposits or withdrawals on your account. This excludes dividends credited to your account by the Credit Union. North Carolina Law requires the Credit Union to turn these funds over to the State after a period of no activity as specified by statute. Before turning funds from inactive accounts over to the State of North Carolina, the Credit Union will send notices as required by North Carolina law advising you of your rights. The Credit Union reserves the right to assess a periodic fee on those accounts that have not been used for more than 6 months.

Statement(s). If we send you a periodic statement for your Share Draft Account or Business Share Draft Account, the statement(s) will include all activity on your account as required by law. You will receive a periodic statement (normally quarterly) for your Share Savings Account or other savings accounts, unless you have an electronic funds transfer transaction during a monthly period (in which case you will receive a monthly statement), or you will receive a combined statement on a monthly basis if you have a Share Draft Account or a Business Share Draft Account and other savings accounts. Each such statement shall show the transactions on your accounts and any charges. We reserve the right not to send statements for accounts we consider inactive, or for those accounts on which we do not have a valid address on file. You should examine the periodic statement carefully and reconcile the account. If there are any discrepancies, the Credit Union should be notified immediately. You agree that the time you have to examine your statement and report to us will depend on the circumstances, but will not, in any circumstance, exceed a total of 30 days from when the statement is first sent or made available to you.

You further agree that if you fail to report any unauthorized signatures, alterations, forgeries, or any other errors in your account within 30 days of when we first send or make the statement available, you cannot assert a claim against us on any items in that statement, and as between you and us the loss will be entirely yours. This 30-day limitation is without regard to whether we used ordinary care. The limitation in this paragraph is in addition to that contained in the first paragraph of this section.

If you do not receive a periodic statement when you would normally receive one, you agree to notify us within fourteen (14) calendar days of the time you normally would have received a statement. The Credit Union will not be liable if items were forged or altered such that a reasonable financial institution could not detect the fraud.

Agreement. This Agreement shall be effective and shall govern all deposit accounts with us. By signing a signature card, making deposits or withdrawals, or leaving amounts on deposit, you agree to the terms of this Agreement. This Agreement shall supersede all previous agreements for such accounts.

Amendment. We may change any of the items of this Agreement at any time without prior notice to you if the change is favorable to you. We may make changes that are adverse to you only if we provide you with any notice required by law or required in this Agreement. You may close the account if you do not agree to the changes; if you continue to use the account or keep the account open after the effective date of such change, you will be deemed to have agreed to the changes.

Notice of Name or Address Changes. You are responsible for notifying us of any address or name change. Whenever we are required to send you notice, the Credit Union is only required to attempt to communicate with you at the most recent address you have provided to us. The Credit Union requires proper documentation for all notices of change in name.

Notice of Amendments. Except as prohibited by applicable law, we may change the terms of this Agreement. We will notify you of any changes in terms or rates as required by law or as required in this Agreement. All notices regarding the account will be posted in our office lobbies or will be sent to you to the address shown on your statement. In the event of joint ownership, notice by or to any one joint depositor shall be deemed notice by or to all. We reserve the right to waive any term in this Agreement. Any such waiver shall not affect our right to future enforcement. We reserve the right not to send notice for accounts we consider inactive. Notices to us should be sent to:

First Flight Federal Credit Union

1815 Kildaire Farm Rd. Suite A, Cary, North Carolina 27518
Phone: 252.447.0691 or 800.807.0766 | Fax: 252.447.9841

Effect of Notice. Any written notice you give us is effective when we receive it. Any written notice we give to you is effective when it is deposited in the U.S. Mail, postage prepaid and addressed to you at your statement mailing address. Notice to any account owner is considered notice to all account owners.

Indemnity. If by following your instructions we are exposed to a claim or suit by an adverse claimant, you shall hold us harmless and indemnify us from any such losses, expenses, liabilities or damages including actual attorneys' fees. If you ask us to follow instructions that we believe might expose us to claims, suits, losses, expenses, liabilities or damages, whether directly or indirectly, we may refuse to follow your instructions, or we may require a bond or other protections.

Severability. If any of this Agreement is found by any other court or regulatory body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part for any reason whatsoever, the authority of the remaining provisions or portions hereof shall not be affected thereby.

Waiver. We may waive any of these provisions at our sole discretion, but any such waiver will apply only on that occasion. If we chose to waive any provision, we will not be bound to waive the same provision or any other provision on another occasion.

Lien & Right of Offset/Enforcement. If you owe us money as a borrower, guarantor, endorser or otherwise, we have a lien on the account funds in any account in which you have an ownership interest, regardless of their source, unless prohibited by law. We may apply these funds in any order to pay off your indebtedness. By not enforcing a lien, we do not waive our right to enforce it later. In addition, you grant the Credit Union a consensual security interest in your accounts and we may use the funds from your accounts to pay any debt or amount now or hereafter owed the Credit Union, or for any loss, cost or expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, we incur as a result of your failure to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement or that we may take to enforce this Agreement or any other Agreement you may enter into with us. This security interest is not applicable to obligations secured by your residence, or unless otherwise may be prohibited by applicable law. We will notify you if we have exercised our right of offset. All accounts are nonassignable and nontransferable to third parties.

Telephone Requests. You agree (for joint accounts, all joint owners agree jointly and severally) that funds in any of your accounts with us can be transferred upon the telephone request of any signer on the account. We shall not be responsible for any loss incurred as a result of our acting upon or executing any request, order or instruction we believe to be genuine. Furthermore, we may refuse to execute any telephone request or order.

Facsimile Signatures. You agree (for joint accounts, all joint owners agree jointly and severally) that the Credit Union may accept and rely on facsimiles of your signature(s) on any deposit or withdrawal form, order or other notices, requests or instructions regarding any account under this Agreement or with the Credit Union. We shall not be responsible for any loss incurred as a result of our acting upon or executing any request, order or instruction we believe to be genuine. Furthermore, we may refuse to execute any facsimile request or order.

Information About Your Accounts and About You. Generally, we will not disclose information to third parties about your accounts or about you without your permission. However, we may disclose information: (1) when it is necessary to complete transfers or transactions, or to send notice of dishonor or nonpayment; (2) to our accountants, attorneys or other professional advisors; (3) to Credit Union or financial institution regulators; (4) to exchange, in the regular course of business, credit information with other financial institutions or commercial enterprises, directly or through credit reporting agencies; (5) to advise third parties of accounts closed for misuse; (6) to furnish information to the appropriate law enforcement authorities when we believe we have been a victim of a crime; (7) to comply with government agency or court orders, or to furnish any information required by statute; (8) to furnish information about the existence of an account to a judgment creditor of yours who has made a written request for such information; (9) when we are attempting to collect an obligation owed to us; or (10) unless otherwise prohibited by law. In addition, you understand and agree that we may, from time to time, request and review credit reports and other information about you prepared by credit reporting agencies or others. For additional information about how we share your information with third parties, please refer to the Credit Union's Privacy Notice.

Section Headings. Section headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall not govern the interpretation of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Legal Process. If any legal action is brought against your account, we may pay out funds according to the terms of the action or refuse any pay out until the dispute is resolved. Any expenses or attorney fees we incur responding to legal process, including but not limited to responding to garnishments, attachments or levies on your account(s), may be charged against your account without notice, unless prohibited by law. Any legal process against your account is subject to our priority lien and security interest.

Taxpayer Identification Numbers and Backup Withholding. Your failure to furnish a correct Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) or meet other requirements may result in backup withholding. If your account is subject to backup withholding, we must withhold and pay to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) a percentage of dividends, interest and certain other payments. If you fail to provide your TIN, we may suspend opening your account.

Special Account Instructions. You may request that we facilitate certain business, trust, will, or court-ordered account arrangements. However, because we do not give legal advice, we cannot counsel you as to which account arrangement most appropriately meets the specific requirements of your business, trust, will, or court order. If you ask us to follow any instructions that we believe might expose us to claims, lawsuits, expenses, liabilities, or damages, whether directly or indirectly, we may refuse to follow your instructions or may require you to indemnify us or post a bond or other protection. Account changes requested by you, or any account owner, such as adding or closing an account or service, must be evidenced by a signed Account Change form and accepted by us.

Termination of Account. We may terminate your account at any time without notice to you, or we may require you to close your account and apply for a new account if: (1) there is a change in owners or authorized signers; (2) there has been a forgery or fraud reported or committed involving your account; (3) there is a dispute as to the ownership of the account or of the funds in the account; (4) any share drafts are lost or stolen; (5) there are excessive returned unpaid items not covered by an overdraft protection plan; (6) there has been any misrepresentation or any other abuse of any of your accounts; or (7) we reasonably deem it necessary to prevent a loss to us. You may terminate a single party account by giving written notice. We reserve the right to require the consent of all owners to terminate a multiple party account. We are not responsible for payment of any draft, withdrawal, or other item after your account is terminated, however, if we pay an item after termination, you agree to reimburse us.

Termination of Membership. You may terminate your membership by giving us notice. You may be denied services or expelled for any reason allowed by applicable law, including causing a loss to the Credit Union. Termination of your membership does not relieve you from any legal obligation created while you were a member of this Credit Union.

Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws, including applicable principles of contract law, and regulations of the State of North Carolina, except as superseded by federal laws and regulations, by the Credit Union's Bylaws, and by local clearinghouse rules. Unless prohibited by applicable law, any action brought pursuant to this Agreement against the Credit Union must be brought in the local State District Court or State Circuit Court in the jurisdiction of the Credit Union's main office or Branch Offices.

Account Agreement. Your application for Membership in the Credit Union as well as your use of any Credit Union Membership privileges constitutes and acknowledgement and consent to the terms and conditions of your accounts as set forth in this Account Agreement and all other accompanying Disclosures provided to you.

Payment Order Of Items. The law permits us to pay items (such as checks or drafts) drawn on your account in any order. To assist you in handling your account with us, we are providing you with the following information regarding how we process the items that you write. When processing items drawn on your account, our policy is to pay them in the order that they are received. The order in which items are paid is important if there is not enough money in your account to pay all of the items that are presented. There is no policy that is favorable to every instance. If the smallest items are paid first, you may have fewer NSF or overdraft fees, but the largest, and perhaps more important items (such as rent or mortgage payments) might not be paid. If an item is presented without sufficient funds in your account to pay it, we may, at our discretion, pay the item (creating an overdraft) or return the item (NSF). The amounts of the overdraft and NSF fees are disclosed elsewhere. By paying items in the order that we receive them, we think our policy attains a reasonable balance between minimizing additional cost to you and paying your more important items. We encourage you to make careful records and practice good account management. This will help you to avoid writing checks or drafts without sufficient funds and incurring the resulting fees.

Pledges. Subject to the Credit Union's priority lien in any deposits and unless we agree otherwise in writing, each owner of an account may pledge all or any part of the funds in it for any purpose to which we agree. The Credit Union's lien on any deposit and any pledge of an account must first be satisfied before the rights of any surviving account owner or account beneficiary become effective.

Unlawful Internet Gambling Notice - Restricted transactions as defined in Federal Reserve Regulation GG are prohibited from being processed through this account or relationship. Restricted transactions generally include, but are not limited to, those in which credit, electronic fund transfers, checks, or drafts are knowingly accepted by gambling businesses in connection with the participation by others in unlawful Internet gambling.

USA PATRIOT ACT

In accordance with the USA PATRIOT ACT, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each individual or entity opening an account. This includes all personal and commercial accounts including loan and deposit accounts, as well as trust, brokerage, insurance, and investment management accounts.

What This Means To Our Members

When you open an account, you will be asked for your name, address, social security or tax identification number, date of birth (if applicable) and other information that will allow First Flight Federal Credit Union to identify you. You will also be asked to furnish your drivers license or other identifying documents. We are required to follow this procedure each time an account is opened, even if you are a current member of First Flight Federal Credit Union.
